1. 25 June - I called [REDACTED] but he did not respond. I called again on 28 June and advised him that we would like to discuss the entire matter of training instruction in [REDACTED] upon the return of our TDY people, who we expected would be back in Headquarters not later than 8 July 1965. [REDACTED] stated that this would be fine. I added that should they have any significant problems between now and then to please let us know. [REDACTED] replied that should the demand become urgent he would notify us.

2. If all goes well we should have a fairly clear position by 8 July and be able to meet with [REDACTED] and any other interested officers on 9 July.
